

Farm to School

EVERCRISP APPLES

History

The EverCrisp apple was developed in Ohio in 1998 by cross-pollinating a HoneyCrisp with a Fuji apple.

Fun Fact

These apples are ready to harvest later in the fall. EverCrisps are also trademarked!

Activity!

Your EverCrisp Apples today were grown by:

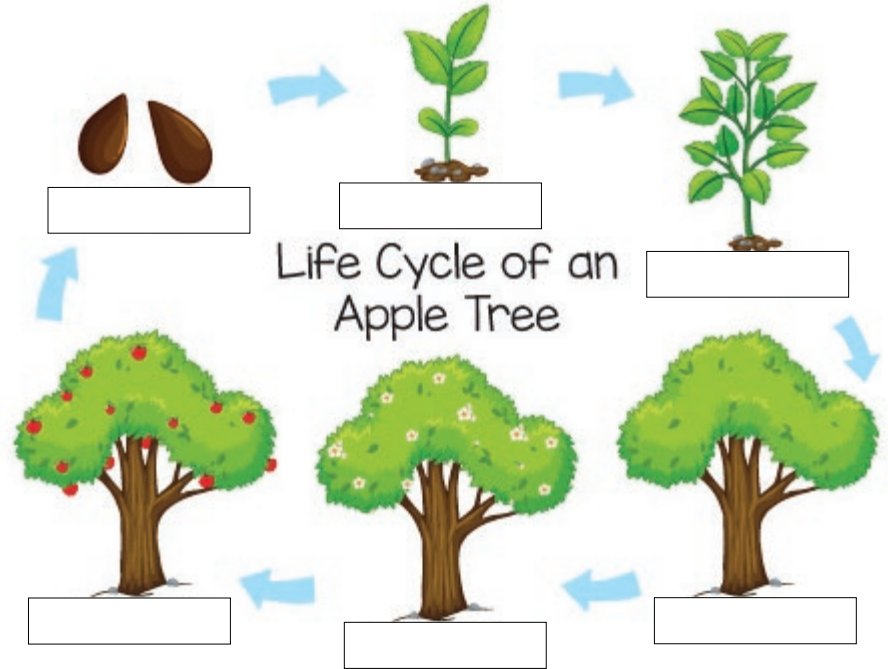

Baughers

Celebrating 100 Years in Carroll County

in Westminster, MD

Use the word bank below to label the lifecycle of an apple tree:

Word Bank:

Tree with blossoms

Tree

Sapling

Tree with apples

Seeds

Seedling